

FESTIVE FUNDRAISING

6. Crafty Christmas

Organise a crafty Christmas fair selling festive goodies made by your colleagues, friends and families. Make anything from Christmas cards to mince pies, or seasonal decorations.

10. Carol-oke

Spread some Christmas cheer with your friends, family and colleagues by holding a donation collection, singing your favourite Christmas carols in your local community, school or workplace.

1. Christmas jumper day

Get in the festive spirit with your friends either at home, school or work and donate £2 to Young Lives vs Cancer to wear your favourite Christmas jumper for the day. Why not hold a "best jumper" competition?

2. Blitzen's baking bonanza

Jump into the kitchen and bake festive treats for your family, friends and colleagues. Sell your mince pies, gingerbread men and candy canes to spread the Christmas cheer.

3. Rudolph's raffle

Ask local businesses to donate gifts and experiences, and hold a Christmas raffle, with a suggested donation of £2 per entry. Get in touch with us for support in organising your raffle and refer to our safe fundraising guidelines via [younglivesvs cancer.org.uk/fundraising-materials/](https://younglivesvs cancer.org.uk/fundraising-materials/)

4. Secret Santa

Buy something special for your secret Santa this year from our online shop. Check it out at [shop.younglivesvs cancer.org.uk](https://shop.younglivesvs cancer.org.uk), there are so many gifts to choose from!

8. Magical movie night

We all have our favourite Christmas film! Ask your friends and family to gather together and donate for a magical evening of movies and mince pies

9. Desk decorations

Get your colleagues together and create a competition for the best Christmas desk. Put in £2 each and split the prize with the winner and Young Lives vs Cancer
